Nashville.

The corporations have declared that they would "pull wide open the fight on the city manager plan," because it has some stringent clauses for the countrol of public utilities. The subterfuge they are using is that they are fighting the battle of the people while they have left the people out of considerationtion in the matter of the utilities commission.

Quinn Is Readmitted.

The fight as everyone understands, is before the legislature. Capit G. T. Fitzhugh, who recently made his debut as counsel for the street railway company, is leading the fight and speaking for the corporations and their organs. Commissioner Quinn, whom Capt. Fitzhugh is said to have attempted to connect with an election matter some years ago, is a regular frequenter at the conferences at Capt Fitzhugh's office.

fice. There was to be a menster mass meeting to protest against the city manager bill, but it fell through after it was found that it was to be staged by the corporations and the labor people of the protection of the protection of the protection.

ple were to be made the victims.

Then the fight shifted to control of the Shelby delegation in the legislature. So far the corporations control only two members—Hanover, the mayor's representative, who does not live in the city, and Galetia, who is associated with the attorney for the street railway company.

There are some jobs open at the city hall, and the corporations, with their favorite plan of trafficking and bargaining for what they want, have not despaired of getting another vote or two.

Get Ready for Raise.

Get Ready for Raise.

The corporation crowd realize they have stirred up a hornets' nest. Their intention was to pass quietly the utilities bill, before the people were awakened to their nefarious design, and then when the street railway asked for a 7-cent fare, the gas company for a dollar or more for gas and an increase for electric lights and the telephone companies for an increase in their rates, to tell the people it was no affair of theirs; that the law vested all power in a board in Nashville.

The full purpose of this plan was about to be interfered with by the city manager bill, giving the people the right to own, lease and operate their public utilities, and then it was that they turned with all the fury they possessed to fighting this measure.

they turned with all the fury they possessed to fighting this measure.

Some of those who were piedged to stand by the citizens' committee and were at every meeting and entered enthusiastically into every discussion, even nominating some of the members of the executive committee, were the first to jump the fence when the corporation ownership, control and operation features were revealed.

Now the corporations are attempting to show what a fearful thing it would be for the city to issue bonds and own their utilities. The city administration has been taken over by the corporations.

The thing that the corporation-bossed city government might reflect upon

The thing that the corporation-bossed city government might reflect upon with profit is the history of some of their immediate predecessors. Their course was from the people into office into the arms of the corporations and thence into political oblivion. The time has passed when officials elected upon a solemn piedge to the people can violate it and get away with it.

The board of directors wishes to extend thanks for the hearty support so far given the campaign and further urges upon Memphians the necessity of contributing to this worthy cause, so that a permanent home may be acquired for the care of unfortunate girls who would otherwise by thrown upon the streets.

security markets were generally stronger.

In Liverpool prices were due to come 26 to 22 points to the bad, but there was no such showing made and offerings were greedly snapped up. The reports from Manchester and the scarcity of the floating supply of contracts and apots, together with the wide discounts on this side in the lower grades, resulted in prices advancing until at the close tone was called firm and the list was 43 to 25 points not to the good. Spots were marked off 11 points, but sales were marked off 11 points, but sales were 5,000 bales, the largest day's business in a long time. Receipts for the day were 15,000 bales, including 14,300 American.

The opening on this side was rather erratic and under the influence of the strong foreign market. In New York first price on May was 21,00c, a rise over night of 47 points, but before the call ended 22,40c bad been recorded, or 77 points to the good. The entire list was strong and higher, but the range not so wide on all nositions. In a few minutes May had dipped to 21,95c, but huying was keen and offferings scarce, and latter 22,50c was recorded, 167 points to the good and 145 above yesterday's lowest. Thereafter the market backed and filled, but all the while displayed a steady tone and hald most of the gains.

a steady tone and held most of the gains.

From the spot department came advices of husiness being moderate, but of inquiry being broader and a little more suggestive of results. There is a better tone to trade reports in this country and it is confidently felt that March exports will show considerable increase, some reports saying that engagements of room are larger. Holders are showing to disposition of fatigue or weakness and the average discount on good ordinary at the designated spot points in the beit is 1026 points below middling

Futures closed 63 to 95 points up, tone very steady

New Orleans closed $3 to 103 points higher, tone steady. Spots were marked down 25 points, middling to 27c, with sales 1,835 bales.

In the local market there continues to be no large business, but inquiry apcears to be some better, although prices offered as a rule are not such as interest holders very much. It is rumored that dickers are on for some sizeable cest holders very much. It is rumore at dischers are on for some sizeable is of 'bollles,' but none can say what sail such with have. Starting of busiess therein would be very encouraging, the low grades here are very plentifore 400 bales and quotations were resed, low grades unchanged and others points up, middling at 27c.

New Orleans - Further realizing by recent buyers occasioned by disappointment over continued apathetic spot demand white; decline ought to be sufficient for present; don't expect any sustained recovery unless predicated or improved demand spots.—Eills & Co Night Letter.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Stormy weather, with sleet and snow, over part of the corn belt had a bullish effect on the corn market today. Opening prices, which ranged from ½c to 1½c higher, with May $1.21½ to $1.22 and July $1.17½ to $1.13, were followed by good additional gains.

Numerous reactions took place, but none of a lasting sort. The close was firm, 3c to 3½c net higher, with May $1.24½ to $1.24½ and July $1.15½ to $1.124 and July $1.15½ to $1.15½ to $1.25½ and July $1.15½ to $1.25½ and July $1.15½ to $1.25½ and July $1.15½ to $1.25½ to $1.25½ and July $1.15½ to $1.25½ to $1.25½

New York cotton opinions: Williston & Co.—The market has the appearance of a somewhat lower level and we suggest buying on good setbacks. Hutton & Co.—There has been no change in the cotton condition and trade demand is still very small. Lintil a better buying power develops, we still think cotton will work lower. Jay & Co.—We continue to favor the buying side, but advise purchases only on good setbacks. vise purchases only on good setbacks. Carpenter & Co.—There is nothing in sight to depress cotton prices and declines such as seen yesterday should be taken advantage of to buy cheap cotton.

New York—Dow-Jones ticker says wire houses report stock buying orders coming in from all over the country.— Hensley.

Chicago.—Northwestern Miller's report said: Minneapolis flour output last week decreased 12.115 barrels. Mills made 107,455 barrels against 151,620 in 1918. If there is any general improvement in the flour market Minneapolis millers can not discern it. If mills had to depend wholly on current orders they would not be operating as heavily as they are, although this is around only 35 per cent of capacity.

Chicago.—Irregular market, but sale bulges, accepting moderate profits; you can buy corn on sharp breaks too for little turns.—King Farnum & Co. to Reene.

New York.—Moyse and Holmes: The only industry which stands out promi-mently as having been able to make ts readjustment from war to peace conditions with greater ranjelity than all others is the automobile industry. Investors are just beginning to realize that the absorption of the product of the better grade of companies is even more rapid than the output.

WHITE ELEPHANT TAKES ON NEW FORM HERE

The proprietor of a wagon yard on South Second street Wednesday afternoon asked Policemen Williams and Kauerz to locate the owner of a mule that was a liability on his hands. A negro who was not known by the wagon yard men rode the mule into the yard late Tuesday night and procured a stall and feed for the animal. The stablemen found the mule all right when they went to feed it Wednesday morning, but the saddle and bridle had been taken from the stable during the night. The negro falled to return to claim the mule.
